Fiona Lynch

Fiona Lynch is an award-winning Melbourne-based designer. Renowned for her bespoke approach to interiors and use of materials and colour, her projects are featured in national magazines, books and blogs throughout Australia and internationally. She brings her unique style to client briefs across retail, hospitality and residential projects. Fiona creates authentic outcomes for beautiful spaces with a real lifestyle or brand focus.

Shards is the second rug collection by Fiona Lynch. This collection of goat hair rugs with angular fractured forms has elemental colour palettes of red, earthy indigos, browns and brilliant cobalt blues. A selection of the colours are from tretford's new range.

Fiona Lynch has had a long association with tretford and its Australian agent Gibbon Architectural through creating bespoke tretford goat-hair rugs for her interior design clients. However, it was an abstract, geometric-patterned rug with pops of yellow and magenta that she designed and commissioned for a Melbourne client that inspired this collaboration. The process has been a melding of creativity where curated colours from the tretford palette and experimental shapes by Fiona Lynch have come together like a jigsaw to create a signature range of rugs.
